The under consideration lays down the additional penalty of the sale of the land itself and appropriation by the Municipality of the site proceeds under certain conditions it is thus repugnant to the provisions of the Town Regn. itself and is therefore illegal. It is illegal for another reason also. The penalty laid down in the bylaw of losing the land itself exceeds the limit of penalty (Rs 20) the Municipality was authorized to levy under Section 225 of the Regn. as much as every house site in Chamarajpetta was sold originally by Govt for Rs 25/ and the present value of the site in question must be more than Rs 25/ for it is said to have been mortgaged for this amount.

The validity of the Byelaw, it is apparent to understand how a person, who account of his poverty, is unable to build on the land within the time fixed by the Byelaw, can be said to have abandoned it by the simple act of ^{the} not building. The term "abandon" implies a conscious, and free withdrawal of ones dominion or ownership of a thing, which is absent in the present instance.

It may be that the owners of the vacant houses, in the extension, have committed breaches of the terms under which they obtained them, but I am of opinion that they cannot be dealt with under the Byelaw in question.

The only provisions under which the Municipal Commission can take action in such matters are apparently those contained in sections 132 and 133 of the Municipal Regulations. How far the condition of resumption and sale laid down in Bye-law No 2 is valid and can be enforced is, however, a difficult point, and one on which the arguments of the Govt Advocate are not quite convincing. He uses the word "penalty" in two different senses, viz the mere consequence of a breach of conditions, and, again, as the punishment for an offence or breach of bye-law, and the argument based on the "penalty" imposed by the bye-law being in excess of that allowed by section 225 confounds the 2 senses of the term.

The point is of sufficient importance to be worthwhile obtaining the decision of the Civil Court upon. The result of the suit filed by the mortgagee against the auction purchaser may perhaps be awaited, and the President informed demurefully that the defendant may be helped, in the preparation of his defence -

OFFICE OF THE MUNICIPAL COMMISSION,

City, Bangalore, 31st March 1906

No 360

Sends two lists

From

THE PRESIDENT,

Municipal Commission,

Bangalore City

To

The Secretary to the Government of H H the Maharaja of Mysore,

General and Revenue Department,

Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honor to state in Bye-law No 2 of the Bangalore Municipal Bye-laws provided that any building sites or premises in streets or lanes abandoned for a period of five years are liable to public sale in pursuance of the order of the President, and that after publication for six months, the money realized, if not claimed, shall be carried to the credit of the Board, under the Unclaimed Property Rule, and further, during the full period such sites may remain vacant, a local cess or kanda, as shall be levied. Seeing that a large number of building sites are allowed to lie vacant within the City and especially in Chamarajendrapete, for the past several years, rendering the place very insanitary by the growth of rank and noxious vegetation, I caused lists of vacant sites liable to sale to be published in the Gazette in pursuance of the above Bye-law. In course of selling some of the sites, the owners or their representatives came forward and executed a declaration binding themselves to build within a month. One site was actually sold. This has been mortgaged to the owner. The mortgagee appeared during the first sale and represented that the owner was ill and undertook to settle his claim if him. The sale was accordingly adjourned. As the mortgagee failed to do anything in spite of repeated reminders, the site was notified for sale for the second time, six months after the date fixed for the first sale. Before the site was actually sold, both the owner and the mortgagee were given due intimation. The owner expressed his inability to build within six months as he had mortgaged the land. Both were absent on the date of the sale.

2. I solicit the favour of early orders as to whether the Municipality has any responsibility or liability so far as the claims of the mortgagee are concerned in such cases and -- whether such lands may be sold free of encumbrances.

3. I may add that the owners of sites--especially in Charr--rajendrapete--have indefinitely put off building on them solely for purposes of speculation and the accompanying list which was notified in the Gazette shows how many such sites there are at present.

In the particular instance under report, the site was originally purchased for Rs. 25/-, but was subsequently mortgaged for Rs. 300/-.

It has been very difficult to conserve these sites as they are overgrown with noxious vegetation and afford room for the neighbours to commit nuisance.

Unless stringent measures are adopted to enforce the necessity of building on them, all attempts to improve the sanitation of the City will be incomplete.

According to the conditions of Sale Notice for granting lands for building, the land is forfeited to the Municipality if not built upon within specified time.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

President

In re Rajanendra Rao vs City Municipality

Sir,
My client, Mr K Rajanendra Rao of the Comptroller's office and now residing in Albert Victor Road, ~~Chamrajpet~~ Chamrajpet, Bangalore City has handed to me two papers in connection with the sale by the Municipality of vacant site No 43 with instructions to give you notice and which I hereby do as follows:-

- (a) that the said vacant site No 43 (Doobab) belonging to one Emmappa in the Albert Victor Road Chamrajpet was in the Mysore Gazette dated the 2nd of February 1905 declared liable to be sold by public auction as having been abandoned for a period of 5 years & more.
- (b) that in pursuance of such a notification in the Mysore Gazette the above ~~land~~ house site was put up for sale by public the auction in the month of September 1905

- (c) that confiding in the authority and truth of the above said declaration in the said Gazette Notification my client bid for & finally became the purchaser of the said site for a sum of Rs 230 (Rs two hundred & thirty) which was duly paid to and accepted by you and for which my client holds formal receipts
- (d) that before, at, and after the sale and purchase of the said house site by my client, the then President, Mr A S Nagarajan formally assured ~~my~~ client that the sale by public auction of the site in question was held just like a revenue sale free from all curl and other encumbrances that might have been created by the owner of the site and that he had full power and authority to make such a sale with a warranty of title of a vacant site that had been abandoned for a period of five or more years.
- (e) that it was because my client relied upon Mr Nagarajan's assurances and which my client justly believed and fully trusted that Mr Nagarajan had the requisite authority to make and to so dispose of abandoned vacant lands that my client was induced to offer such a high price as he actually did.
- (f) that my client would never have cared

- to pay the best price of Rs. 230 (Rs. two hundred and thirty) for the vacant site but for the the residents' assurances, promises and warranty of title;
- (g) That in spite of the above said assurances given by the President, my client strangely finds himself served with a defendants' summons from the Court of the Principal Munsiff of Bangalore no O S No 1182 of 1905-06 calling upon my client to answer a claim of Rs. 400 (Four hundred) alleged to be due on a hypothecation of the above mentioned house site No 43 and secured by the original proprietor Sumappa in favor of the said Venkataranna.
- (h) That I am now instructed to send you a copy of the plaint and the summons received by my client in the said suit and which I herewith send along with this notice;
- i) That the said suit comes on for adjourned hearing on the 6th Instant.

Under the circumstances as above set forth my client has now instructed to give you this notice and which I hereby do, and to ask you to be prepared to defend the said suit instituted by the above mentioned Venkataranna and also to claim and demand from you the immediate payment to my client or to me on his behalf of the sum of Rs. 10/8 (Rs. ten and annas eight) my fee for this communication on or before the 6th Inst. I am further

I have instructed to state that unless you arrange renew the above said claim of the said Varkat Munaya and make the said payment of Rs 10/6 (Rs ten & annas eight) as aforesaid, my Client will be advised to take legal proceeding against you and will hold you responsible for all costs incurred by my Client in accordance with any order or decree that may be passed against my Client in the said suit.

My Client further holds you liable to make good the assurances and warranty of title given to my Client by the President and to ensure to my Client the safe and unmolested enjoyment & possession of the above said house etc free from all kinds of encumbrances.

I remain
Yours ^{Ever} Faithfully

In continuation of this office letter No 46 dated the 16th Instant regarding the power of the municipality for resuming sites in the Western Extension-the owners of - which have not fulfilled the conditions of the sale-notice - and have allowed their sites to remain vacant for years together, causing lantana and other noxious vegetation to grow on them and thus giving room for the people to commit nuisance &c, there, to the detriment of the health of the neighbourhood, I have the honor to invite kind reference to para 1 of this office letter No 26^x of 20th December 1904⁴ submitting copy of a Lawyer's notice from one of the owners of sites in Basavangudi Extension, questioning the authority of the Municipal President to resume sites in the extension. The owner failed to build on them as per conditions of the scrip, and to request the favor of very early orders as to points urged. It is suggested that all admissible of the conditions of the scrip may be considered as a condition absolute and can be put into force so far as the resumption of resuming the long-standing vacant sites are concerned.

the matter of the resump-

am directed to forward herewith a copy of the Govt. Advocate's opinion on the subject and to state that his arguments do not seem to be quite convincing. He uses the word penalty in two different senses, viz the mere consequence of a breach of conditions and as the punishment for an offence or breach of

based on the penalty imposed by the bye-law being in excess of that allowed by section 225 compounds the 2 senses of the term.

The question being,
however, of sufficient im-to proceed as it ^{has been} decided as
